Elul 5783

August 18 – September 15, 2023

The New Moon: Wednesday, 29 Av (16.8.2023), at 5:04 p.m. and 17 Chalakim

Kiddush Levana (Sanctification of the Moon): From Saturday night, the eve of 3 Elul (19.8.2023) to Wednesday night, the eve of 14 Elul (30.8.2023) the entire night

Kiddush Levana (according to Oriental communities): from Wednesday night, the eve of 7 Elul (23.8.2023).

Friday, 1 Elul (18.8.2023) – Second day of Rosh Chodesh Elul: Rosh Chodesh prayers.

We begin to blow the Shofar (teki'a – shevarim – teru'a – teki'a) every morning until 28 Elul, in order to arouse people to do teshuvah. We begin to recite ledavid Hashem ori at the shacharit and 'arvit services (ashkenazim-chasidim and sefardim: at shacharit and mincha) until the festival of Shemini 'Atzeret.

It is the custom of our Oriental communities to rise every morning to recite selichot before ashmoret haboker from Sunday night, the eve of 3 Elul (19.8.2023) and some do so at midnight. Some blow the shofar during selichot – when the chazan recites Vaya'avor.

Shabbat Parashat Shoftim, 2 Elul (18.8.2023)

For the Haftara we read in the book of Isaiah (51:12), from Anochi Anochi Hu Menachemchem to 52:12 "...e-lokei yisrael".

Mincha: Three men are called up to read from Parashat Ki Tetze. Avot, chapter 1.

Shabbat Parashat Ki Tetze, 9 Elul (26.8.2023)

We read the haftara from Isaiah (Yasha'yahu) 54:1: ronni 'akara – to verse 10: amar merachamecha Hashem.

Mincha: Three men are called up to read from Parashat Ki Tavo. Avot chapter 2.

Shabbat Parashat Ki Tavo, 16 Elul (2.9.2023)

The haftara is read from Isaiah (Yasha'yahu) 60: kumi ori to the end of the chapter. It is customary to read the tochecha in a low voice, but the whole congregation must hear the reading. It is also customary for the reader himself to make the berachot over this section.

Mincha: Three men are called up to read from Parashat Nitzavim. Avot, Chapters 3-4.

Shabbat Parashot Nitzavim-Vayelech, 23 Elul (9.9.2023)

The haftara is read from Isaiah (Yasha'yahu) 61:10: sos asis to 63:9: kol yemei 'olam. We do not bless the new month (because of bakeseh leyom chageinu).

Mincha: Three men are called up to read from Parashat Ha'azinu. Avot, Chapters 5-6.

On Saturday night we begin to say Selichot. Some begin to say at midnight, and some start at around 10 p.m., ashmoret Shniya (the second part of the night). It is preferable to say Selichot at dawn.

Sunday, 24 Elul (10.9.2023)

Ashkenazim being to say Selichot. We recite 'al netilat yadayim, asher yatzar and birkat hatorah before reciting selichot, and we do not repeat the berachot before praying. The shaliach tzibbur puts on his tallit (while it is still night), but does not recite the relevant beracha. When morning dawns he takes off the tallit, recites the beracha and puts it on again. It is preferable to wear a borrowed tallit (from an individual, not the one belonging to the tzibbur), so that his obligation to recite the beracha is clear. Ashrei, chatzi kaddish, selichot according to custom. After the selichot we recite the vidui once only (the Vilna Gaon's custom). Tachanun, kaddish titkabbal.

If one recites selichot by himself one should say shelosh esreh middot as if he were reading it from the Torah, with its trop, and not as a prayer; he omits uzechor lanu hayom brit shelosh 'esreh, nor does he recite the bakashot written in Aramaic.

Until Erev Yom Kippur it is customary to visit gravesites of tzaddikim. Some fast on the first day of selichot.

Friday, 29 Elul (15.9.2023): Erev Rosh Hashanah 5784.

It is customary to wake up early in the morning, to say many slichot known as Zechor habrit. A mourner may go to shul for slichot. Following slichot tachanun is said, and its recitation continues into daylight. During shachrit tachanun is not said. Lamenatzeach is said. The shofar is not blown. After davening it is customary to perform hatarat nedarim, this can be done until erev Yom Kippur. One who does not understand the Hebrew should say hatarat nedarim in the language he understands. Vows may be annulled until erev Yom Kippur, and beyond. A woman may assign her husband to annul her vows: he should tell the dayanim that he is annulling his wife's vows and recite the text in the plural form: shenadarnu, shenishbanu.
